Biography of Laurence Hutton

Laurence Hutton was literary editor of the "Literary Notes" Department at Harper's Magazine from 1886 to 1898. In 1897, Hutton received an honorary M.A. from Princeton University, and from 1901 to his death in 1904 he was a lecturer on English at Princeton.

Description

The collection consists of several hundred photographs removed from 11 photograph albums, compiled by Hutton. Included are numerous portraits of prominent 19th-century artists and literary, political, and historical figures, as well as photographs from Hutton's "literary pilgrimages" to the homes, gravesites, and monuments of significant authors. [Boxes 6 and 7 contain the empty, original albums.]

Access and Use

Access

Collection is open for research use.

Restrictions on Use and Copyright Information

Single photocopies may be made for research purposes. No further photoduplication of copies of material in the collection can be made when Princeton University Library does not own the original. Permission to publish material from the collection must be requested from the Associate University Librarian for Rare Books and Special Collections. The library has no information on the status of literary rights in the collection and researchers are responsible for determining any questions of copyright.
